Page 23

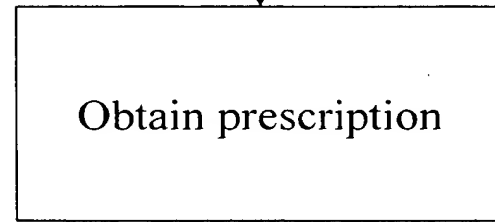

A hand-drawn diagram of a curved surface, possibly a cross-section of a pipe or a similar structure. The surface is divided into several vertical segments by lines. Each segment is labeled with a number: 2520, 2525, 2530, 2535, 2540, 2545, and 2550. An arrow points to the right side of the diagram, labeled 2500. Another arrow points to the bottom right corner, labeled 2510.
